Miss Regina McCall Is Bride of Naval Officer

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Church of the Nativity by the Rev. Thos. Kennedy on Friday, June 9, at 9 a. m., when Lieutenant Walter L. Dyer of the U. S. S. Lexington took as his bride, Regina V. McCall, a former resident of Torrance now of Long Beach.

The bride looked charmingly gowned in white French organza with large corsage of gardenias. She wore a white turban with short white veil and carried a white prayer book and rosary. The couple were attended by the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel B. Moser. Mrs. Moser was gowned in pale blue satin with blue picture hat and wore a corsage of tallmums roses.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth McCall and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Anna Dyer of Rumford, Maine. He was graduated from the Naval Academy in 1927.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Moser, 1317 Amapola avenue, to relatives and friends, after which Lieutenant and Mrs. Dyer left immediately for Rumford, Maine, driving by way of Chicago where they will visit the World's Fair.

They will later visit his brother and sister-in-law, Lieutenant and Mrs. James Dyer, at Norfolk, Virginia, and will then go to Annapolis where the bridegroom will report for duty at the Naval Academy.

The bride was honored with a personal shower Thursday night by Misses Vera Ellis and Lorena Tyson of Long Beach, to which 27 were bidden. Ice cream in the shape of battleships and hearts and candies were served with heart shaped cakes with inscriptions of the names of the bridal pair and date of the wedding.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB MEETS

Bell, Jr., who for the past ten years has served as principal of the school. A bronze casting of a tablet in honor of Mr. Bell and bearing a worthy inscription, was unveiled and will be placed in a permanent fixture in the school auditorium.

NEW OFFICERS INSTALLED

A profusion of ferns and summer blooms decorated the tables of the Methodist Episcopal church for one of the most delightful luncheons of the year, last Tuesday when officers of the Woman's Aid Society were installed for the ensuing year. Mrs. Kemp J. Winkler, as toastmistress, was most charming, mingling her introductions with remarks in prose and poetry. Mrs. Van De Water of Long Beach, president of Los Angeles Federation of Women's Aid Societies, gave a splendid talk, taking as her theme, "Public Opinion, the Most Influential Force." Mrs. Winkler then complimented Mrs. J. B. Edwards, the retiring president of the Woman's Aid, for her past year and presented her with a gift from the society. Mrs. Edwards in turn introduced her staff of retiring officers and thanked them for their co-operation.

Mrs. Juliette Johnson and Mrs. Lorraine Ulrich sang a duet, after which Mrs. Van De Water installed the following officers, carefully outlining the duties of each: Mrs. John Keefe was installed as president; Mrs. R. A. Hogue, first vice president; Mrs. Leslie Burger, second vice president; Mrs. Orville Hall, third vice president; Mrs. J. B. Edwards, fourth vice president; Mrs. George Morgan, recording secretary; Mrs. Geo. W. Sapp, financial secretary; Miss Doris Spoon, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Stella Graham, treasurer; Mrs. Earl Robinette.

At closing a circle of friendship was formed by joining hands and all sang, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."
